Mr. LUCKETT'S CONDITION.

Raleigh F. Luckett, an inspector of the Adams Express Company, in Wash-ington, is in a critical condition at the Emergency Hospital in that city, the result of an attempt to end his own life with a revolver.

Brooding over his separation from his wife is attributed as the cause of Luckett's rash act.

Luckett now lives, probably, because he is left handed. In the attempt, he became excited and confused, and in aiming the revolver at his heart permitted it to slip.

The bullet entered the right breast The builet entered the right breas, penetrating between the right lung and the heart, and lodging in the delicate membranes of the spinal cord. When the builet reached this vital spot the entire portion of his body below the waist became paralyzed.

The young man last night was in precarious condition. The physicians say he will live. The X-ray will be used to locate the position of the bullet. An operation will be performed today When the bullet is removed the physicians say Luckett's recovery will be Luckett however seems determined to die. The only person who up to last night had been permitted to see him was his father, C. E. Luckett.

"Pop, it's all over; it's over," Luc-kett said to the father who was at the bedside last night. The young man talked to his father in a rational manner, saying life had become miserable and he decided to bring it to an end.

Since separation from his wife, formerly Miss Gertrude Harlow, of this city, to whom he was married 5 years ago, Luckett has been depressed and worried. To his most intimate friends, however, he has not mentioned his troubles.

Mr. Luckett's wife and two children are now visiting relatives at Laurel, Md. Mr. Luckett passed a bad night at the Emergency Hospital and this morning the physicians stated that he was sinking rapidly. They said his condition was so critical that no effort would be made to perform an operation.

Mrs. Gertrude Luckett, his wife, ar rived at the hospital about noon, to le with her husband.

She was accompanied by her father Mr. M. B. Harlow of this city.

MISHAPS ON RAILWAY.

As was stated in the Gazette, the over head wires of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway a short distance north of Alexandria fell yes terday morning and trains were tied up for some time. Early in the afternoon the motor car of a north bound train left the rails on the big "fill" that has recently been made a short distance this cently been made a snort distance this side of Mount Vernon, and the trucks were buried deep in the soft earth. The train was filled with passengers, but no one was injured. A train was sent down to bring the passengers to this city, and it was late in the night before the derailed ear was recovered was the city. the derailed car was replaced upon the track. A drawhead on a south-bound train pulled out and left the trailer help less near St Asaph about 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening. The motor car pro-ceeded to Alexandria, and later the trailer with its passengers was pushed to this city by another train.
